U. States,
Respondent

MOTION FOR JUDICIAL RECOMMENDATION

Comes now, Brianna Woodby, pro-se, and humbly requests to file this motion for Judicial Recommendation for (12) months placement in a halfway house (RRC) pursuant to 18 USC § 3621(b).

Pursuant to the Second Chance Act, an inmate must be considered for placement in a residential re-entry center for up to twelve months in an attempt to avoid recidivism, 18 USC § 3624(c)(1).

The goal of such placement is to "afford.... a reasonable opportunity to adjust to and prepare for the re-entry of the prisoner into the community. If the BOP makes the decision, in consideration of the following factors;

(1) The resources of the facility contemplated;

(2) The nature and circumstances of the offense;

(3) The characteristics of the prisoner;

(4) Any statement by the court that imposed the sentence;

(A) Considering the purposes for which the sentence to be imprisoned was determined or warranted;

(B) Recommending a type of penal or correctional facility as appropriate.

DISCUSSION

Petitioner wants to point out with this Honorable Court that she would like to maximize her chances for successful release and to have a law abiding life. She needs an additional adjustment period due to (her family responsibilities, etc)

She does not pose a significant threat to her community. She has not had any repeated or serious or (any) institutional rule violations what so ever and displays a perfect disciplinary record. She has had no escapes, repetitive violence, or association with gangs or terrorist organizations. In short, Brianna Woodby, petitioner, is a perfect candidate for this judicial recommendation.

Based upon the above, Brianna Woodby, pro-se respectfully requests that this motion be granted and she receive her much needed recommendation for (12) months RRC placement.

Respectfully submitted this 18th day of may, 2020.
